

FUR THEVES ARE ARRESTED IN EAST

This May Clear Up Local Police Mystery.

WORK OF A LARGE COMBINE

IMMENSE FENCE IS FOUND IN NEW YORK CITY.

What promises to unravel the mystery of the fur thefts which were conducted on a large scale in Salt Lake and other western cities about a year ago is the discovery by the New York authorities of a mammoth fence, the United States Fur company, which has been operating in the east for over a year.

While the United States Fur company had a large establishment in New York, the assistants, professional thieves, were scattered throughout the country. Frank Payton, who is believed to be the expert who put up the jobs in the west, was arrested in Denver only a few months ago on the charge of stealing from the firm of Daniels & Fisher to the value of $1,500. Both he and his wife, who was also implicated, were subsequently released, the firm refusing to prosecute.

At the time of the fur thefts in Salt Lake, when both the Paris Millinery company and H. Steigel suffered heavily the local police found sufficient evidence to show that women were mixed up in the game. It is now believed that Payton and his wife were the prime movers. The firm has received that Assistant District Attorney Oowan of New York has caused the arrest of Emanuel Pilsan, president of the United States Fur company, and Samuel Flarak, a silent partner.

In the New York establishment were recovered many valuable furs and gowns stolen from department stores from various sections of the country, many of which have already been identified. A list of the furs taken from the big fence is now on the way west for identification and it is possible that among those recovered will be some belonging to establishments of Salt Lake City. The band of burglars cleaned up nearly $100,000 worth of property.

SMALL BOY DROWNED

Raymond Fulton of Pocateello, Aged Ten, Jumps Out of a Skiff.

(Special to The Herald.) Pocateello, Ida., June 5.—Raymond Fulton, a son of Mrs. Fulton of this city, was drowned in the Portneuf river about two miles west of town this morning. He was playing with his sister along the river bank and got into a skiff, which in some way became unfastened and drifted down the stream. The boy, becoming frightened, jumped out, and the current being very swift, he was carried under and he was drowned. The water in some way also got into the skiff, but was rescued with great difficulty. Young Fulton was aged 10 years. The river has been dragged all afternoon and dynamite exploded, but the body has not been recovered up to this writing. The boy's mother has found many warm friends in her sorrow.

FISH FOR ARGENTINE.

Streams Being Stocked by Experts From This Country.

St. Johnsbury, Vt., June 5.—John B. Titcomb of the division of fish culture in the national fisheries bureau has reached his home, after a nine months' stay in Argentina, where he was sent by the government to aid in the introduction and propagation of salmon and trout.

Mr. Titcomb operated mainly at Lake Nahuelcupi, the headwaters of the rivers Limay and Rio Negro, where a hatchery was built. For the purpose of this hatchery the United States government had shipped to Argentina 1,000,000 white fish eggs, 100,000 great lake trout and 50,000 brook trout and landlocked salmon. E. A. Julian of Colorado, who accompanied Mr. Titcomb as his assistant, will remain in the republic's service for five years. The aim is to introduce the salmon into the southern waters of Argentina and stock the waters of Lake Nahuelcupi with brook trout. Fifty thousand steelhead trout eggs from California and the state of Washington will be shipped to Argentina this week.

Mr. Titcomb has recommended the introduction also of both large and small and large mouth bass into the streams and lakes of the warmer regions of Argentina, as there are no game fish in the waters of that country.

CORN FIELDS UNDER WATER.

Falls City, Neb., June 5.—Continuous heavy storms have brought creeks and rivers in south central Nebraska up with a rush and caused the Nemaha to overflow and flood the lowlands for the third time this year. Cornfields are under water and the railroad has been carried out, but if there is no further rise, railroads, it is believed, will escape the usual June washouts.

RAIN IN OKLAHOMA.

Ardmore, L. T., June 5.—Heavy rains continue to fall in this part of the Indian Territory and the railroad is being seriously affected. The Rock Island operated no trains into Ardmore today, and trains on the Frisco are being operated with difficulty, both roads experiencing numerous washouts.

TELLS OF POPE'S VIEWS ON MUSIC

Famed Archbishop From New Zealand Here.

IS ACCOMPLISHED VIOLINIST

NOW ON WAY TO MAKE REPORT TO THE PONTIFF.

The Most Reverend Francis Redwood, S. M., archbishop of Wellington and Metropolitan of New Zealand, arrived in Salt Lake City yesterday. He is the guest of the faculty of All Hallows college. Archbishop Redwood is on his way to Rome to greet Pope Pius X and make his decennial report. He will remain in this city but a few days and will then continue on his mission, stopping en route at St. Louis, Chicago, New York and London, England.

Not only is Archbishop Redwood noted in both the Old World and in New Zealand for his religious work, but he is a celebrated musician as well. A genuine old Stradivarius is one of his most valued companions and he accompanies him on his present trip. Archbishop Redwood is thoroughly in harmony with the recently expressed views of the head of the Catholic church on music and its place in religion.

Operatic Element Opposed.

"The pope himself is an accomplished musician," he stated yesterday afternoon, and it is his desire that music should be given a high place in the church. But he believes, and it is my belief, that it should be the lay maid, not the mistress, of religion. Pope Pius desires that the operatic element in mass or other church music should be eliminated.

"And this is right. Why, in some cases the composer has taken such liberty that the sense of the mass, the very words, are misused to preserve melody. And then the pope has expressed a wish that choirs composed of men and boys succeed those composed entirely or partially of women's voices. But nothing is obligatory where it is impossible. He does not expect twelve choirs to be made in a day. In many places, as in different parts of New Zealand where it is difficult to obtain many trained voices, the choirs must necessarily be mixed."

"But what can more splendid than a choir of young men and boys where it is possible to organize one? Witness Westminster choir. The spiritual importance of music is doubtless none, but it is undeniable that for the past twenty years the church has been unconsciously riding religion of the operatic element."

Favors Government Ownership. According to Archbishop Redwood, the postal system and telephone service, for example, admirably and giving great satisfaction. The compulsory arbitration law has been in force for some years and its value and efficiency are appreciated by both capital and labor.

For twelve years Archbishop Redwood, "twelve words made me sent to any part of New Zealand. An additional charge of 2 cents is made for every word beyond twelve in an ordinary message. The board is surprised to learn how much correspondence is done by wire because of the cheap rates. It is the same with every utility. The profits revert to the citizen."

"As regards the compulsory arbitration measure, I would say that it has saved many thousands of dollars. Before a strike can be put to a vote by any union the grievances must be presented to an arbitration board composed of representatives of union and employer. The board's report is subjected to a judicial hearing on the part of the supreme court."

Referring to his own relations to the head of the church Archbishop Redwood said: "I am directly under the pope and not under the jurisdiction of the cardinal. I have been stationed at Wellington, the capital of New Zealand. I am pleased to say that during the past years the Roman Catholic church has made material progress in that district. The schools are flourishing and are on a par with those of the government. The enrollment is high."

Not First Visit to Salt Lake. "No, this is not my first visit to Salt Lake City. On several other occasions I have spent a few days here. My trip will take me about six months and I shall return by slow stages to Wellington."

Archbishop Redwood was born in England in the forties, but left the land of his birth for New Zealand in early childhood. He received his education and theological training at Mont Bel, France, where he was a college chum of the present John Ireland of St. Paul and Bishop O'Gorman of Sioux Falls.

He entered on religious life soon after graduating from the French institute and taught theology for some years at Dublin, Ireland. He was later consecrated bishop by Cardinal Manning, archbishop of Westminster, on May 30, 1887, and was appointed metropolitan of New Zealand.

He is a speaker of eloquence and commands influence in the land of his jurisdiction.

"INSIDE INN" ADVANTAGES.

Why the Only Hotel in the World's Fair Enclosure Promises to be a Popular Hostelry.

COMFORT AT MODERATE PRICES.

There is one large hotel on the grounds of the World's fair, at St. Louis called "The Inside Inn." It has a capacity of accommodating with comfort and safety 6,000 guests. It is located near the southeastern corner of the grounds and convenient to two of the entrances in its immediate vicinity are many of the beautiful buildings erected by the states and territories. The Inside Inn is embowered in natural forest trees. It is in fact, a bit of a big bit of suburban enterprise set in the edge of a great city. From the doors and windows of the Inside Inn one is not compelled to look upon sun-baked stone streets, sweltering alleys and dead walls. On the contrary, the guest has an outlook from private veranda in which appear here and there the inviting outlines of new houses built without qualms as to cost and embellished with all the artistic adornments that architecture can supply. Looking farther, the guest may behold the graceful towers and the stately domes of the most wonderful city on earth—the Louisiana Purchase exposition.

In short, the guest at the Inside Inn will be practically at a summer resort, away from the din and clamor and dust and heat of the busy city, and yet near enough to the World's fair glories to behold some of them from his window and to reach any of them in a few minutes. If perchance he shall become weary of the "wonderful wealth of things to see and hear for the time being, he may lie back to the Inside Inn, where in his own apartments or in the cozy lounging rooms or parlors of the Inn he may enjoy a delightful rest, fitting him for a return to the heart of the World's fair, refreshed and revived.

The guests at the Inside Inn will be the only visitors who can see the World's fair from their own front door, so to speak, for at the Inn they will be at home, and while viewing any part of the great exposition they will have the satisfaction of knowing that a short walk—a brief ride on the Inland Empire cars will take them home without going outside the grounds.

WHY HE PUSHES IT.

F. C. Schramm Recommends and Pushes Mi-o-na, the Dyspepsia Remedy.

"It's a pleasure to sell a medicine when my customers come in afterwards and tell me how much good it has done them," said F. C. Schramm, the popular druggist, to a Herald man, and that is why I like to sell and recommend Mi-o-na, the dyspepsia remedy.

"I have much faith in this article that I am going to guarantee it in the future. For twelve years I have been a purchaser of Mi-o-na, and it does not cure. That may seem rash, but my customers have said so many good words in its favor that I do not expect to have many packages returned."

"Any one who has dyspepsia, whose food does not digest well, who has to eat and when, can leave 50 cents deposit at my store and take home a box of Mi-o-na. The remedy does not regulate his digestion and cure his dyspepsia, he can withdraw his money on returning the empty box."

This shows great faith in the merit of Mi-o-na. It is a real and unusual medicine and the rapid increase in sales since F. C. Schramm introduced it, testify that it claims to do—cures dyspepsia, regulates digestion and enables those who use it to eat just what they want and when they want with no fear of trouble, or pain, or sickness. The profits revert to the citizen."

SALT LAKE CITY PROOF

Mrs. Thomas Lambert of 338 East Sixth South, wife of Thomas Lambert, clerk, says: "The pain in my back, generally very persistent, was located just over the kidneys. When I attempted to do any lifting or working sharp twinges shot through me and in getting up I often had to observe the greatest care unless I wished to incur excruciating pains. This continued in spite of my use of medicine until I was willing to try almost anything. Ever on the outlook for something which might help, I happened to see an advertisement about Doan's Kidney Pills, and went to the E. J. Hill Drug Co.'s store for a box. If the first one had not brought marked benefit I never would have bought a second, and if the second had not further helped I never would have bought a third, and if the treatment had not decidedly proved to me that Doan's Kidney Pills act as represented, I would be the last resident of Salt Lake City to publicly endorse the preparation."
